

GOD WILL PROVIDE

Written By: Marlene Pelt
Marlene Stafford Pelt Publishing/BMI
tommarlene@cox.net
www.marlenepelt.com
479-629-1322---479-629-5498

There was a man one day God said Abraham
Take your Son and go away to a distant land
With a Son he loved so dearly, while in his Golden Years.
They walked side by side through the day and the night, knowing God was near

When they climbed to the top of a Mountain they both began to work
The Son done all his Father asked but spoke not a word
They laid the sticks and stacked them high where soon the son would lie
With a tender voice he begin to ask, "Father where is the Sacrifice"
And he said

Chorus:

God will provide my God will provide.
For he knew his God never would lead them there to die.
And just like in the days of old there's something we all must know
Faith in the end lets his Grace flow in and God will provide

Down through the Years that Mountain stood this time there were three trees
In the middle hung, my Savior on a Cross-meant for me.
For God knew I could never be a Holy Sacrifice so High on That hill underneath the dark sky. God once again provides.

Chorus:

God will provide, my God will provide
For he would never leave us here in our Sins to die
And just like in those Days of Old there's something we all must know Faith in the End lets his Grace flow in and God will provide

Tag:

Yes my God still provides, God still provides for Faith in the End lets his Grace Flow in and God--- will---- provide----
He still provides.

D.O.C. 1985