

© I'M FLYING HIGHER
Written By: Marlene Pelt
Marlene Stafford Pelt Publishing/BMI
479-629-1322////479-629-5498
tommarlene@cox.net
www.marlenepelt.com

I have walked on many roads that had no end
Circling through life no peace within
Searching for the gold beneath that rainbow in the sky
Finding that false hope's all it supplies
Then I met a man his name is Jesus
He taught me what faith in God can bring
When I put my trust in him, lean not to what I see.
That's when he blows wind beneath my wings

Chorus:

I'm flying higher then I have ever been before
I'm seeing places through the spirit as I soar
For the first time in my life
I learned to look beyond my sight
And I'm flying higher then I have ever been before
I'm flying higher then I have ever been before.

Verse.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for Evidence of things you cannot see
When I share my thoughts with him about my hopes and dreams
He reassures me all is in my reach.
He tells me not to question only trust him
Even when the answers not in sight
As I learn to patiently, wait upon his strength
Like an eagle to the sky, I take my flight

CHORUS:

Tag: For the first time in my life, I learned to look beyond my sight
And I'm flying higher then I have ever been before
I'm flying higher then I have ever been before.

D.O.C. 2006