I'm gazing at a Mountain standing high that blocks my sight.
Sometimes it overwhelms me and weaken down my fight
But, Walking through the valley God Speaks peace to a troubled mind
When He whispers Child don't worry,---- its just a Mountain to climb)

Chorus:

It's just another Mountain to climb
I know because I've been there and I have seen them many times
But, I've never had to face them on my own
Nor have I ever walked it alone
My Strength in Christ Is what I always find
So it's just another Mountain to climb.

The enemy come's looking Just, To steal, kill and destroy
He whispers words of doubt and tries to take away all joy
Jesus he reminds me, Satan's just a defeated foe
So Devil step behind me I've got a Mountain to climb..

Chorus:

Chorus:
