

Mystery to man
Writer: Marlene Pelt

She was pushed through the crowd by the hands of men with anger
Shouting Kill this woman for the wrong she's done
Jesus Spoke among them, cast your stone if you have no sin
When she raised her head her accusers had walked away.

Chorus:

It's still a Mystery to Man what Jesus wrote in the Sand
As he penned it with his sacred hand
Was it the wrong done by these men or all of their secret hidden sins
It's still a mystery what Jesus wrote in the sand.

How many times have we repeated the act of these men?
When we speak words of anger and condemn
Jesus forgives all sins, to never be remembered again
We should drop those stones like the men that walked away.

Chorus:

Tag: There is a lesson we all must learn
That's the cry of forgiveness is heard
Its not the mystery that Jesus wrote in the sand.
Its still a mystery what Jesus wrote... in the Sands.....
