There are times I seem so small when in this race, in which I'm called

I may stumble but yet I rise, to make my stand.

For Jesus said I promise you that if you're faithful over a few

You'll see this place where all your precious Dreams come true.

CHORUS:

There's a place where Dreams come true

Where he's waiting to welcome you

And all your sorrows and your trials will fade away

In a land beyond the sky

They'll be no tears to dim your eyes

In a place where Jesus makes our Dreams come true

Disappointments down here they fall

But in that land beyond the stars

They'll be no sorrow no more sadness all is new

No more parting over there, no sad good-bye's we'll have to bear.

In this Place where Jesus makes our Dreams come true.

Chorus:
