(CHORUS :) _

This one thing I know
When Jesus touched me he made me whole
And when my eyes were blind to see
He opened a whole new world for me
There may be things that I don't know
Don't have the right answers when problems unfold
But I know that he is the one in control
He said that he'd never leave me alone
Oh this is one thing I know

Jesus passed by a Beggar that lay
Deprived from his sight from Birth till that day
He spat on the clay he placed in his hand
Then anointed his eyes the way know one else can Washing his eyes his sight was returned
But the people had scorned at what they had heard
Asking this man, how could this be?
He said this I know, I was blind, now I see

(CHORUS ;)

Bridge:

Now I've had many questions I've faced in my life
Wondering why I'm being tested and tried Then I remembered the blind man that day
Recalling the words he had to say

Chorus:

Tag-Oh this is one thing I know.
